

ORLANDO MUSIC CLUB

MEETING MINUTES

Date: Friday – September 11, 2020

Location: VIRTUAL ZOOM MEETING Time: 10:00 AM; an alternate meeting was held Thursday, September 10 7:30 p.m. for those who could not attend Friday's meeting.

The meeting was called to order by Italo Brett, President.

There were 14 members, two were new members; 1 guest present; 2 members attended Thursday's alternate meeting. Total members present: 16

See list of attendees below.

Italo asked everyone to introduce themselves, what they instruct, and where they are located. He welcomed member Elizabeth Fullington with Foundation For The Arts.

Secretary, Tisa Marsh, welcomed FFMC State President, Cheryl Poe, and two Past Presidents, Sherry Pollock and Lisa Moore.

Vice-President, Tina Gant, recently updated the OMC brochure as a marketing tool for our club. She will send multiple copies of the brochure to any member interested in sharing with a non-member colleague or distributing to music stores. A big thanks to Tina for leading this project.

Tina Gant also shared updated information on upcoming events, providing the venues are open. Events to be scheduled: Founder's Day, Scholarship Awards. Community Recitals, hosted by the OMC, will be scheduled if venues become available. The Board of Officers met bi-weekly this Summer to plan for these events. We are hopeful for venues to be able to host.

Treasurer, Natalie Kalugina, read the treasurer's report stating $17,935.32 is total amount we have in our bank as of September 11.. The full treasurer's report is listed below. Natalie also shared that we have 45 members who have paid dues as of September 11. She welcomed returning members who were not active last year but have returned as active members: Dr. Gary Wolfe Who were others?

1. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Kathy Baratta, Treasurer, that meeting was dated 8/31/2018. The minutes were approved by all that were present.

Board: We did not do this...should we include for our next meeting?

Cheryl Poe – our FFMC State President – commended the new Board and transition team for meeting bi-weekly this Summer and is excited about the strength of the Orlando Music Club. NOTE: In the May meeting, Cheryl mentioned that the Spring Senior Convention will be rebooked in 2021 with the location planned for Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Italo thanked Lisa Moore for meeting with the new officers this Summer to help with transition.

In Our May meeting, Barbara Browning recommended that the minutes and the treasurer's reports should be posted. Board: How do we do this?

Officers shared how they are teaching lessons in relationship to Covid-19. Several ideas were shared and members offered input as well. Italo is going to produce a YouTube tutorial detailing how he has set up his studio for online instruction with several camera views and quality sound.

Junior Festival Board shared updates regarding Junior Festival 2021. It was decided that more information will be solidified and shared in October.

The next OMC meeting will be held in November and will be announced via email and the website.

The Meeting was adjourned at 10:50 a.m.
